Dr. Ballantine's Resignation.

On Tuesday evening a parish meeting was held in the Sunday School room of the First Presbyterian Church to select commissioners to represent the congregation at the meeting of the Presbytery, at which the pastor will tender his resignation. Rev. George A. Paul acted as Moderator of the meeting. The following resolutions, prepared by the Session of the church were read by Herbert H. Biddulph.

Our pastor, Dr. H. W. Ballantine, having asked this congregation to unite with him in an application to the Presbytery to leave to resign his office in order to accept a call from the First Congregational Church in Baltimore, we desire to express our great reluctance to accede to his request, and our deep regret that he has thought it advisable to close his successful pastorate of nearly twenty years. We cheerfully recognize the earnestness and ability of his pulpit services, his faithfulness as a pastor, and his high Christian character. These have gained for him the esteem of the whole community. In the union work of the churches he has borne a leading part. As a citizen, he has efficiently promoted the welfare of the town. In all things he has adorned the doctrine of God our Savior. Believing however that it would be unwise to oppose his settled wish to terminate his pastorate, and affectionately commending him to his new charge—Resolved That three commissioners be appointed who shall express to the Presbytery the acquiescence of this congregation in his request.

Peter Carter, H. H. Biddulph and N. Harvey Dodd were chosen commissioners. Remarks were made by a number of the members. It was decided to extend the pastor's salary to the first of May and to tender him the use of the parsonage as long as he desires it.

There will be no tickets of admission but a collection will be taken for the benefit of the foreign mission cause. Madame Barakat is a native Syrian, converted through missionary influence, and is a woman of great ability. She is a pleasant and interesting speaker. For the last ten years she has lived in this country, giving up a great part of her time to instructing the home workers and awakening their zeal for the spread of the gospel in Syria. All are cordially invited.

engaged during the winter months preparing for a sale to be given for the benefit of the Mountaineers Hospital. Mrs. Helmut.

Mrs. William T. Helmut, who has been elected president of the Seneca, is hardly the woman to please the "advanced" element, for she distinctly disavows any belief in the general superiority of one sex to the other and owes a great deal of her influence, her knowledge and her liberality to her gifted husband, who has made her his confidant, his assistant and his other half on all occasions. When her election was announced, she had to be kissed by all the members, and when it was over she is said to have remarked in a sly tone, "Well, men have some advantages over us yet."—New York World.

Erected by Women.

The Daughters of the Republic, and association of ladies in Texas, have erected in Lakewood cemetery, Galveston, a shaft of granite in honor of David G. Burnett, first president of the republic of Texas—1799-1876—and General Sidney Sherman—1805-73—who commanded the left wing at the battle of San Jacinto. The base of the monument carries inscriptions, and the shaft, which is white marble, is topped by a shield, which bears the names of the two Texans in large raised and polished letters. The unveiling ceremonies were followed by a grand banquet.—Dallas Letter.

France Feels Her Loss.

The woman suffrage movement in France is temporarily without a leader since the death of Mlle. Maria Deraimes early in February. She was 65 years old and from her childhood had shown independence of thought. She was a writer and lecturer on all subjects connected with the cause of women, and when Dumas' "L'Homme-Femme" first appeared she replied to it in "Eve Contre Dumas," the controversy exciting much interest. Mlle. Deraimes was always called "madame" by courtesy.—Paris Times.

Perfume Varies with the Season.

Perfumed hair is a fancy of the hour, and to obtain it young women wear to bed mob caps of two thicknesses of tinted silk with a cotton wedding interlining, sprinkled with sachet powder. It imparts a delicate fragrance and may be relied upon to promote hairiness at a rapid rate.—St. Louis Republic.
